

Welcome to Youth Connect!

Do you ever hear about an exciting program only to learn that you missed the deadline to sign up? The Youth Connect e-Blast is a monthly email newsletter with the latest news on the Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP), job training opportunities and afterschool activities.

You can call us at 1-800-246-4646 or send us an email at www.nyc.gov/dycd.

Do you know anyone else who might be interested in Youth Connect? Share this with your friends and tell them to subscribe!

NYC Ladders for Leaders Corporate Internships NOVEMBER 26 APPLICATION DEADLINE

Get your foot in the door at some of New York City's most dynamic corporations and businesses. NYC Ladders for Leaders provides New York City high school and college students with many valuable resources:

- Paid summer internships with local corporations
- College scholarships
- Free college preparatory and SAT courses
- Career guidance
- Professional development workshops

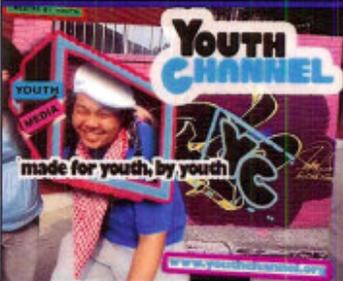

Log on to our website at www.nyc.gov/dycd to learn more and apply now.

U.S. Census Bureau Now Hiring

You can apply now for a job with the U.S. Census Bureau if you are a U.S. Citizen who is 18 or older with a valid social security number. The Bureau needs local residents for several positions in different departments, including human resources, office administration, crew leaders and field staff.

Call 1-866-861-2010 or visit www.census.gov/2010censusjobs to learn more and apply.

Manhattan Youth Channel Internship

Would you like to work in television? Interns at the Manhattan Youth Channel produce a short video and develop important skills:

- Filming with digital video cameras
- Basic television studio training
- Field shooting and digital editing

Visit www.youthchannel.org or email ycinfo@youthchannel.org for more information.

NYC Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS)

Are you interested in working for the City of New York? You must take an Open Competitive Exam through DCAS before applying for a city job. During the month of November you can take the exam to be a:

- New York City Police Officer
- New York City Correction Officer

For more information visit www.nyc.gov/dcas

NYC Healthy Relationship Training Academy

The Mayor's Office to Combat Domestic Violence (OCDV) is recruiting young people to serve as Peer Educators on domestic violence, dating violence and healthy relationships as part of the New York City Healthy Relationship Training Academy.

Applicants should be between the ages of 17-24 (previous experience not required). The position is paid based on the number of workshops facilitated. The application is available online.

For more information about the Academy visit www.nyc.gov/domesticviolence